LITURGY CORNER

Saint Anthony the Abbot (251-356 AD) Following the death of his parents when he was about 20, Anthony insured that his sister completed her education, then he sold his house, furniture, and the land he owned, gave the proceeds to the poor, joined the anchorites who lived nearby, and moved into an empty sepulchre. At age 35 he moved to the desert to live alone; he lived 20 years in an abandoned fort.

Anthony barricaded the place for solitude, but admirers and would-be students broke in. He miraculously healed people, and agreed to be the spiritual counselor of others. His recommendation was to base life on the Gospel. Word spread, and so many disciples arrived that Anthony founded two monasteries on the Nile, one at Pispir, one at Arsinoe. Many of those who lived near him supported themselves by making baskets and brushes, and from that came his patronage of those trades.

Anthony briefly left his seclusion in 311, going to Alexandria, Egypt to fight Arianism, and to comfort the victims of the persecutions of Maximinus. At some point in his life, he met with his sister again. She, too, had withdrawn from the world, and directed a community of nuns. Anthony retired to the desert, living in a cave on Mount Colzim.

Descriptions paint him as uniformly modest and courteous. His example led many to take up the monastic life, and to follow his way. Late in life Anthony became a close friend of Saint Paul the Hermit, and he buried the aged anchorite, leading to his patronage of gravediggers. His biography was written by his friend Saint Athanasius of Alexandria.

His relationship with pigs and patronage of swineherds is a little complicated. Skin diseases were sometimes treated with applications of pork fat, which reduced inflammation and itching. As Anthony's intervention aided in the same conditions, he was shown in art accompanied by a pig. People who saw the art work, but did not have it explained, thought there was a direct connection between Anthony and pigs – and people who worked with swine took him as their patron.

Bible Study is on Wednesdays 11:00 am to 12:30 pm and on Thursday 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm. Please Come join us, we will focus in the Book of Genesis. We will be meeting at Deary Hall on (Formation Building West) all are welcome!

There will be some differences packing this year. Everyone will be assigned to a table. If you want to be with a certain group be sure to sign up as a group. We will also be wearing masks during the packing session and tables will be socially distanced from other tables.

Remember to drop off your ManaPack bag or M&M tube donations in our donation globe by the church entrance.

Thank you to all who have donated or signed up already. We are well on our way to having a successful pack. New this year is that if we are able to raise more funds than we can physically pack, FMSC will be able to produce the additional meals for us and they will be shipped to children in need. This is critical this year as the United Nations has recently reported that the need for emergency food assistance is likely to increase by 17% to 274 million people making it the worst hunger crisis this century. Organizations like FMSC help address this crisis on a daily basis.

Please contact Barth or Mary Jo Wolf at bwolf3@new.rr.com or 920-621-6097 if you have any questions. Thank you for your support!
