Saint Padre Pio: "Pray, hope, and don't worry. Worry is useless. God is merciful and will hear your prayer."

"America you are beautiful... and blessed... the ultimate test of your greatness is the way you treat every human being, but especially the weakest and most defenseless. If you want equal justice for all and true freedom and lasting peace, then America, defend life."

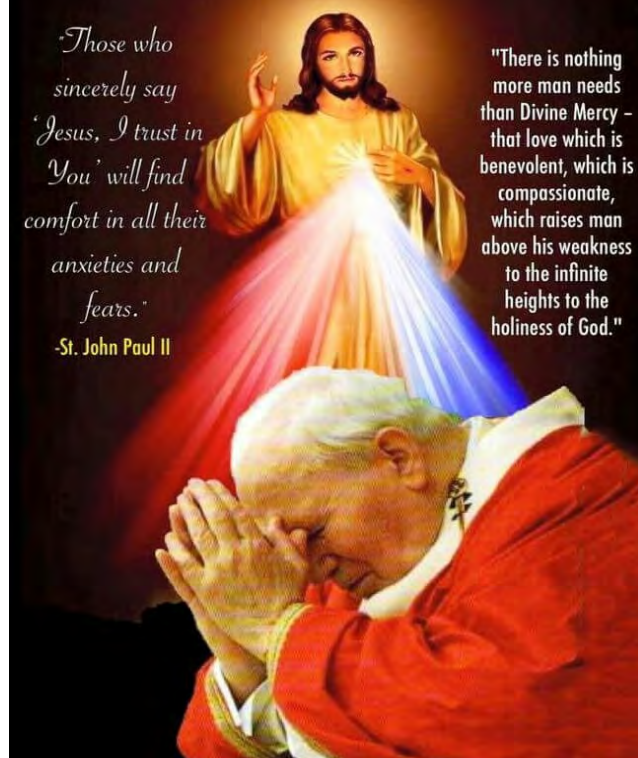

—Saint John Paul II

The Pope of Divine Mercy

*Those who sincerely say
'Jesus, I trust in
You' will find comfort in all their anxieties and fears.'*

—St. John Paul II

*"There is nothing more man needs than Divine Mercy - that love which is benevolent, which is compassionate, which raises man
above his weakness to the infinite heights to the holiness of God."*

LITURGY CORNER

EASTER WITH THE SAINTS

Saint Andre Bessette (1845-1937)

By Connie Clark (2020 Creative Communications for the Parish)

A sickly teenager arrived at the door of the Congregation of the Holy Cross in Montreal with a note from his pastor: "I am sending you a saint." It was difficult to see what the priest might have seen in the young man, who was unable to read or write and was too weak to do any of the manual labor required in a monastery. When the order turned him away, it was another in a series of rejections for young Alfred Bessette, who had been searching for work since soon after he'd been orphaned at age 12.

Later reconsidering their decision, the brothers accepted Alfred. He took vows in 1874 as a professed brother. Brother Andre, as he was known, was assigned to a high school in Montreal to be a janitor and doorkeeper. He later quipped, "When I joined this community, the superiors showed me the door, and I remained there forty years." Brother Andre was beloved by students and visitors alike. As word spread of cures at his hands, he would shrug and say, "I do not cure. Saint Joseph cures."

In between work and prayer, Brother Andre charged five cents for haircuts. He eventually saved enough nickels to build a small, one-room oratory. His shrine grew and, today, Saint Joseph's Oratory of Mount Royal is Canada's largest church, yet it is still a place of welcome, peace and prayer.

Reflection: The man who said, "My only ambition is to serve God in the most humble tasks," saved nickels to build a small shrine that would become a center of Christian faith and worship. What are the smallest tasks you have to do today? How can you serve God through them?

Saint Andre Bessette, pray for us!

Just as humility perfects us with respect to God, gentleness perfects us with respect to our neighbor."

- Saint Francis de Sales

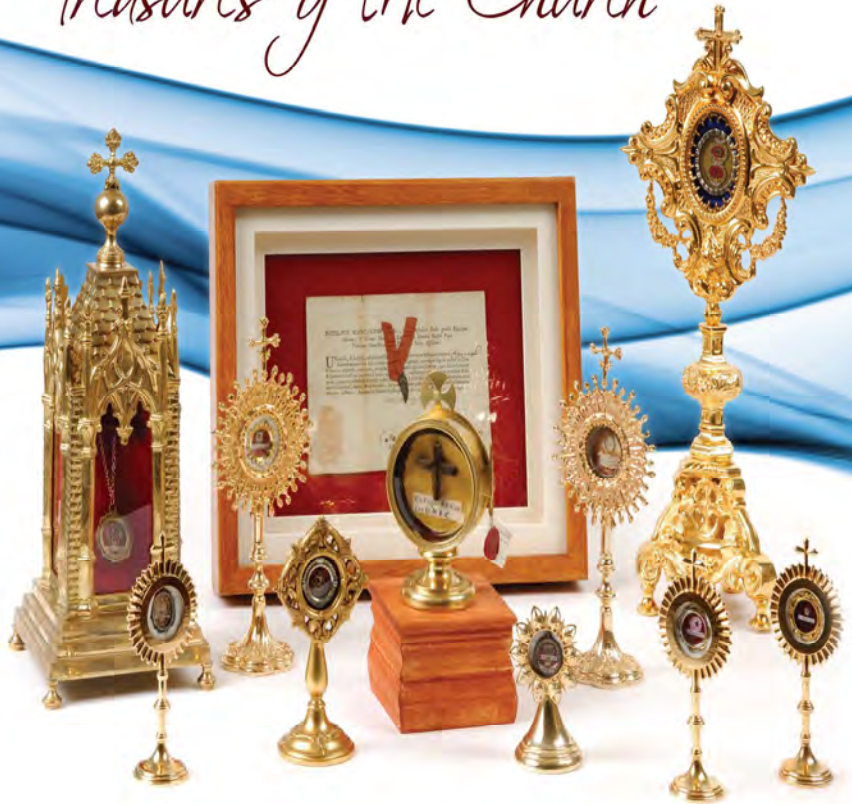

EXPOSITION^{OF} SACRED RELICS

Treasures of the Church

St. Katharine Drexel Parish welcomes you to a teaching and exposition of Sacred Relics. Over 150 relics will be shown, some as old as 2,000 years.

Among the treasures will be relics of St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. John the Baptist, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska.

There will also be a fragment of the Veil that belonged to Our Lady and some of the largest remaining pieces of the Wood of the True Cross in the world.

presented by Father Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross

In today's Gospel, we notice there was a week between Jesus' first appearance (without Thomas), and the following appearance (with Thomas). During this week, Thomas chose to stay with the community. But why? Perhaps he trusted his friends in some way. Perhaps he reflected on their life with Jesus and on the possibility their account was true. In the week between, Thomas stayed and lived with the questions, and with his doubts. Importantly, the disciples did not cast him out as an unbeliever. It seems they accepted and loved him, just as he was. Perhaps many of us live in this "week between." We have questions and doubts. We can choose to leave or to stay. We can either engage or ignore our deepest questions. If we embrace our questions with courage, we can live into them. Perhaps we will encounter, through God's initiative, and with the help of our companions in faith, some of the answers--and new questions along the way.

Handbell Choir

Our Parish Music Ministry is going to be embarking on a fundraising campaign to add another beautiful facet to the music here at SKD! We are hoping to purchase 4 octaves (49 bells) of English Handbells from the Malmark Handbell Company so that we may offer yet another opportunity for parishioners to share their musical talents by becoming a "Ringer" in our Bell Choir!

And so to "kick-off" our endeavor we have invited the Bell Choir from St. Cecelia to ring along with our two Adult Choirs so that you may experience it first hand and see what it's all about!

Sunday, May 15 @10:30am Mass

The Bells will be ringing for this Mass and then immediately after Mass you will have an opportunity to donate a bell. If you choose to sponsor (donate) a bell you can do so by offering a memorial in memory of a loved one, a celebration of your Wedding Anniversary or simply in honor of your family. The handle of the bell will be inscribed by the company and will be a remembrance forever. WATCH the bulletin each week as we get closer for more info!

CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL 2022

Responding to the Lord's command to go and make disciples of all nations, the Diocese of Venice is committed to providing the necessary resources for seminarians.

A seminarian's calling is nourished through a rigorous intellectual formation in a faithful and loving obedience to the Magisterium and the sacred truths entrusted to the Church. The seminary provides an environment that forms men to be committed disciples of Christ.

Seminarians live in community. This means they pray together, work together, take their meals together, and study together. While the seminary is a place where individual men go to discern what the Lord is asking of them, ultimately, as priests, they will belong to a presbyterate. The seeds of this brotherhood and fraternity are sown during their time in seminary formation.

As soon as the seminary closes its doors for the summer, a different type of learning begins with either pastoral work or a Parish assignment.

While in a Parish setting, a seminarian serves and learns from priests. He assists the Pastor with the many responsibilities of ministering to the needs of Parishioners and the community as a whole: distributing Communion during Mass, participating in Bible study, youth activities, leading a group to help feed those in need, and much more.

Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) provides an opportunity for seminarians to develop pastoral competency within a hospital setting. This experience serves as a basis for dealing with various life situations and crisis circumstances.

In the meantime, seminarians continue with their prayer life and grow in their vocation, like so many priests ordained before them.

Magnificat Breakfast for Women

Be blessed and encouraged at the next Magnificat breakfast for women, 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Saturday, April 30, at the Holiday Inn Airport, Gulf Coast Town Center, Fort Myers. The speaker is Father Saji Ellickal, of the Missionary Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament, who is the Parochial Vicar of St. John XXIII Parish in Fort Myers. Born and raised in a small mountain city of Kerala, India, he joined a minor seminary at the age of 15 and was ordained to the priesthood in 2000. He served at schools and Parishes in India before coming to the United States in 2007. Here he served in the Diocese of Memphis before coming to the Diocese of Venice in 2017. In Father Saji's words: "I really love being a priest and thank the good Lord for trusting me with this divine call to minister to the spiritual needs of the faithful. The most important inspiration for me to be happy is my devotion to the Holy Eucharist and seeking the intercessions of Our Heavenly Mother Mary." Please send a $23 check, payable to Magnificat Fort Myers, to Cristina Martinez, 11860 Dixon Dr., Fort Myers, FL 33913 or you can make reservations online at:
