EASTER WITH THE SAINTS

Saint Thomas More (1478-1535)

By Connie Clark (2020 Creative Communications for the Parish)

In 1531, Thomas More was a rising political star in England. A trusted advisor to Henry VIII, Thomas was also a faithful Catholic who had, at one time, considered entering the monastic life.

When Henry wanted an annulment so that he could marry Anne Boleyn, Pope Clement VII declared the monarch's marriage to Catherine of Aragon valid and therefore indissoluble. Henry famously sought to defy the pope, but Thomas, committed to the notion of a church shepherded by the pope as the Vicar of Christ, could not support Henry and resigned. He managed to remain in the king's favor for a while. But when Thomas refused to sign the Oath of Supremacy, which declared Henry the supreme head of the church in England, it was too much of a public affront. Thomas was arrested, found guilty of treason and sentenced to death. On the scaffold at his execution, he said, "I die the king's faithful servant, but God's first." In 2000, Saint John Paul II declared him the patron saint of statesmen and politicians.

Reflection: Are you wrestling with issues of morality to your job, family or public life? Catholics have many opportunities to form our consciences. (A good start is reading the section on conscience in the Catechism of the Catholic Church.) You might also do some "holy research" by reviewing the Church's position on current moral issues, such as abortion, the death penalty, euthanasia, immigration and the environment.

Saint Thomas More, pray for us!
