I give you a new commandment:
love one another.

John 13:34

"Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race."

— Revelation 21:3

When God says "behold, I make all things new," God is speaking of both the present and the future. God is working now, in every person and community, in every part of part of creation, to bring about this new reality.

Saint Padre Pio: "Pray, hope, and don't worry. Worry is useless. God is merciful and will hear your prayer."

"America you are beautiful... and blessed... the ultimate test of your greatness is the way you treat every human being, but especially the weakest and most defenseless. If you want equal justice for all and true freedom and lasting peace, then America, defend life."

—Saint John Paul II

Sacramental Information

LITURGY CORNER

EASTER WITH THE SAINTS

Saint Maria Goretti (1890-1902)

By Connie Clark

(2020 Creative Communications for the Parish)

On a warm July afternoon in 1902, Maria Goretti sat on the stairs of the house that her family shared with another family, the Serenellis. The twelve (12) year old was sewing and watching her toddler sister Teresa while the rest of the family worked in the fields near the town of Nettuno, Italy. The girls were alone when twenty (20) year old Alessandro Serenelli approached the house, carrying a sharp awl. Serenelli had been making increasingly suggestive remarks to Maria, who been careful to never be alone with him. But of this day, Serenelli walked into the house, took Maria by surprise, grabbed her and tried to assault her sexually. Maria struggled and resisted, crying out that it was a sin and that he would go to hell for it. In a fit of rage, Alessandro struck Maria multiple times with the awl. She was able to shout out a window for help as Alessandro fled to his room and locked the door. Maria was taken to a hospital, where she spoke of forgiving her attacker. But with fourteen stab wounds and damage to her internal organs, she died a day later. Alessandro was arrested, convicted and sentenced to thirty (30) years in prison. At first, he refused to repent, but after a dream in which he saw Maria bringing him white lilies, his demeanor changed. Released after twenty-seven (27) years, his first act was to beg Maria's mother for forgiveness. He joined a monastery and became a lay brother. In 1950, he attended Saint Maria Goretti's canonization, crying tears of joy.

Reflection: Recall Jesus' words on the cross: "Father forgive them, they know not what they do" (Luke 23:34). Imagine what would have happened had Maria Goretti chosen not to forgive Alessandro. Would yet another soul be lost to hate? Forgiveness does not ignore the sin, but it can transform a sinner.

Saint Maria Goretti, pray for us!

Walking with Moms in Need

SHE'S PREGNANT!

LET HER KNOW
SHE'S NOT ALONE

If you heard someone you know is pregnant and considering abortion, what would you do?
Maybe she's a family member or friend; perhaps you don't really know her but just met her in a store or at an event.

- Start by letting her know she's not alone. Before she makes a regrettable decision that can't be undone, tell her about the life-affirming help she can receive through a local pregnancy help center. Share the website through the QR code below for the nearest location. There she can receive accurate information about her options, have her pregnancy confirmed, see her child via ultrasound, learn from parenting classes and more.
- Resources for financial and emotional help are available. The center can help her find housing if she needs it, perhaps at a local maternity home and a home for moms and babies after the birth so she can pursue her career.
- Parishioners can join others in determining how the parish can help on a deeper level by working alongside the pregnancy help center, aiding clients by providing needed assistance, personalized to each mother.
- The center can help her stay connected to the parish or rediscover her Catholic heritage. Maybe she doesn't belong to a particular faith community but is open to experiencing one that cares about her.

A PRAYER FOR PREGNANT MOTHERS

O Blessed Mother, you received the good news of the incarnation of Christ, your Son, with faith and trust. Grant your protection to all pregnant mothers facing difficulties.

Guide us as we strive to make our parish communities places of welcome and assistance for mothers in need. Help us become instruments of God's love and compassion.

Mary, Mother of the Church, graciously help us build a culture of life and a civilization of love, together with all people of good will, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life.* Amen.

40 Days for Life /365

Mother Angelica said "The whole world needs to hear two things with strength and power: "God loves you" and "I love you." You must say it often to your friends. This world is not starving from lack of money. It's starving from a want of love."

Please love unborn babies, their parents and yes, even the abortion workers and come in love to pray and save a baby at 40 Days for Life/365 in Fort Myers... this coming Thursday and/or any future Thursday any-time between 12:00 Noon to 2:00 pm outside the Planned Parenthood, 6418 Commerce Park Drive, Fort Myers, 33966.

Hope to see you there. Thank you for your support!

ALL THINGS NEW

The new heaven and new earth described by Revelation is where God will dwell fully among God's beloved creation. God's reign will be a reign of love, where death will be no more. In Revelation, death fuels fear and resentment, which turn to cycles of violence and destruction, and to social systems that sustain injustice. These cycles of death will one day be broken by love. In God's reign of love, new energies of creativity and human fulfillment can be released. When God says "behold, I make all things new," God is speaking of both the present and the future. God is working now, in every person and community, in every part of part of creation, to bring about this new reality. We the Church must learn to see God working in our lives, our workplaces, and our neighborhoods, breaking cycles of death. We are summoned to join in what God is doing, releasing new energies of love, anticipating the final fulfillment of God's work.
