Saint Padre Pio: “Pray, hope, and don’t worry. Worry is useless. God is merciful and will hear your prayer.”

“America you are beautiful... and blessed... the ultimate test of your greatness is the way you treat every human being, but especially the weakest and most defenseless. If you want equal justice for all and true freedom and lasting peace, then America, defend life.”

—Saint John Paul II

A PRAYER TO THE SPIRIT

Spirit of Jesus,
 poured out in flames of fire upon Your disciples
 on the day of Pentecost,
 we pray to You:
 Set a fire the hearts of Your faithful
 so that they will announce
 in all the languages of the world
 the wonders of the salvation of God.

—From Come, Lord Jesus by Lucien Deiss, CSSP, copyright

LITURGY CORNER

Pope Francis announces the canonization of Blessed Titus Brandsma, O. Carm. The canonization will take place on Sunday 15 May 2022 in St Peter's Square.

7 THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT SAINT TITUS BRANDSMA: The journalist, mystic and saint is a fitting patron for the blogosphere.

1. The miracle for his canonization involved a fellow Carmelite. When Florida Carmelite Father Michael Driscoll received a diagnosis of stage-4 melanoma in 2004, he knew where to turn: He began praying for the intercession of Blessed Titus Brandsma, who had been martyred in the Nazi concentration camp at Dachau. A fellow priest gave Father Driscoll a second-class relic, a patch of black cloth from Brandsma's tunic, which Father Driscoll held against his forehead each day as he prayed for healing. Father Driscoll had already undergone numerous surgeries to remove smaller skin cancers from his face, but this time, the cancer was widespread. Surgeons removed an advanced metastatic melanoma from his head and neck, as well as 84 lymph nodes and a salivary gland. According to doctors, he had little chance of recovery.

But recover he did. An investigative panel in the Diocese of Palm Beach spent more than a year analyzing the healing, interviewing Father Driscoll's physicians and other medical experts, as well as 12 of Father Driscoll's parishioners and two priests. On May 25, 2021, the panel ruled that the priest's healing was, indeed, miraculous, and they sent their report on to the Vatican's Congregation for the Causes of Saints for final study. On Nov. 9, that congregation approved the canonization cause and forwarded their ruling to Pope Francis. Two weeks later, on Nov. 25, the Pope authorized Cardinal Marcello Semeraro, prefect of the congregation, to issue a decree approving the miracle — the last step along the path toward canonization.

coll's physicians and other medical experts, as well as 12 of Father Driscoll's parishioners and two priests. On May 25, 2021, the panel ruled that the priest's healing was, indeed, miraculous, and they sent their report on to the Vatican's Congregation for the Causes of Saints for final study. On Nov. 9, that congregation approved the canonization cause and forwarded their ruling to Pope Francis. Two weeks later, on Nov. 25, the Pope authorized Cardinal Marcello Semeraro, prefect of the congregation, to issue a decree approving the miracle — the last step along the path toward canonization.

2. As a journalist, Brandsma was fearless. He spoke out when it seemed everyone else was quietly looking the other way. He was willing to stand alone against a government that resisted the will of the people. When he lived and worked in the Netherlands during the 1930s and '40s, social media had not yet developed. What Pope John Paul II called the "digital continent" — that new way of communicating across borders — was the stuff of imagination. Still, Titus Brandsma, a priest of the Carmelite order and a journalist, managed to communicate widely with the Dutch faithful. He served as editor of his local newspaper and as ecclesiastical adviser to Catholic journalists at some 30 Dutch newspapers.

3. In addition to his journalistic work, Father Brandsma was an academic. He taught at several universities throughout the Netherlands and translated the work of St. Teresa of Ávila from Spanish into Dutch. He was one of the founders of the Catholic University of Nijmegen (now Radboud University), where he taught philosophy and the history of mysticism, and later served as rector. He was popular because of his generous spirit and was known for his constant availability to everyone who sought his counsel.

4. Father Brandsma drafted the Dutch Catholic bishops' widely circulated pastoral letter condemning anti-Semitism, which was read in Catholic parishes throughout the country. Such vile sentiment was emerging in Germany, along with the deportation of the first Jews from the Netherlands. In the Letter, the Dutch bishops contrasted Catholicism and Nazism, showing how the two ideologies were incompatible. In Hitler's Germany, the Nazi response to the pastoral letter was not what the Dutch bishops had hoped: More than 3,000 Jewish converts to Catholicism were deported from the Netherlands.

5. Father Brandsma wrote and spoke against the Nazis' anti-Jewish marriage laws and propaganda. In 1942, he was arrested after trying to persuade Dutch Catholic newspapers not to print Nazi propaganda (as was required by the Nazi occupiers).

6. He died a martyr. Father Titus Brandsma was transferred to the concentration camp at Dachau in February 1942. In July of that year, he was executed by lethal injection. He forgave the nurse who administered the injection and gave her a rosary. Though not religious at the time, she later became Catholic.

7. His feast day is in July. Blessed Titus Brandsma was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1985, and his feast day is observed within the Carmelite Order on July 27. Saint Titus was canonized on May 15, 2022 by Pope Francis.

Father Titus Brandsma Pray for us!

WHAT GOD IS UP TO?

The Christian community gathered in the Upper Room, awaiting the Holy Spirit, has long stirred the Christian imagination. In our own time, when the Church has a long history of Christian faith but now faces many challenges, we might return to this image. Like the first disciples, we often don't know what to do next. What used to work for us doesn't work as well. We need to stay together, honor diversity, reflect upon the roots of our faith, and remain rooted in prayer.

Yet there is more. Pentecost has happened and is happening. The Spirit has already burst out into the world, already stirring among those who are confused about God. The Book of Acts tells the story of a Church continually pushed out by the Spirit, to join in what God was already up to, out in the world. We too are invited not only to remember our unity and our roots, but to pay acute attention to how the Spirit is working in our local communities.

Saint Katharine Drexel Prayer Ministry Third Weekend of the Month

After All Masses

God's grace continues to touch and heal us in powerful ways, after we have received Jesus. The close of Holy Mass is the perfect time to remain with Jesus a bit longer to pray for His healing and His help in any area of your life or the lives of those you know and love.

Prayer Team Members are available to pray with you every third weekend of the month, after all Masses. Please come forward to present your prayer needs and those of your family and friends to our prayer team members who are stationed in the front of the Church.

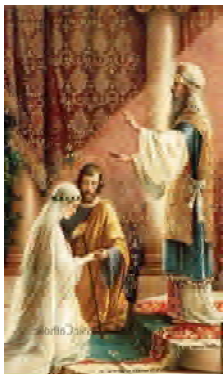

Saint Charles had a beautiful soul that is expressed in this profound prayer of abandonment.

Saint Charles de Foucauld had a remarkable life, at first abandoning the Catholic faith and then later embracing his faith with his whole heart.

Father, I abandon myself into Your hands;
do with me what You will.
Whatever you may do, I thank You:
I am ready for all, I accept all.
Let only Your will be done in me,
and in all your creatures –
I wish no more than this, O Lord.

Into your hands I commend my soul:
I offer it to you with all the love of my heart,
for I love You, Lord, and so need
to give myself,
to surrender myself into your hands
without reserve,
and with boundless confidence,
for You are my Father.

What is Spiritual Direction?

Spiritual direction is "help given by one Christian to another which enables that person to pay attention to God's personal communication to him or her, to respond to this personally communicating God, to grow in intimacy with this God, and to live out the consequences of the relationship." (William A. Barry and William J. Connolly, The Practice of Spiritual Direction)

Spiritual direction focuses on religious experience. It is concerned with a person's actual experience of a relationship with God.

Spiritual direction is about a relationship. The religious experience is not isolated, nor does it consist of extraordinary events. It is what happens in an ongoing relationship between the person and God. Most often this is a relationship that is experienced in prayer.

Spiritual direction is a relationship that is going somewhere. God is leading the person to deeper faith and more generous service. The spiritual director asks not just "what is happening?" but "what is moving forward?"

The real spiritual director is God. God touches the human heart directly. The human spiritual director does not "direct" in the sense of giving advice and solving problems. Rather, the director helps a person respond to God's invitation to a deeper relationship.

Feel free to bring a friend!

Seating is limited! Please register by August 14th. No walk-ins please.

No cost. No commitment. Just come & see!

We Did It !!!

Thank You SKD for your overwhelming support in helping to raise the funds for us to go forward and begin our Handbell Choir at our Parish! Our 49 Bells and all the accessories have been ordered and should arrive by the end of June!

Once the bells are here we will have a Blessing of the Bells at our weekend Masses Sat/Sun, July 23/24 (what a great Christmas in July present!) at which time you will be able to see them and if you did sponsor a bell, an opportunity to see that inscription.

Now...we need YOU to consider becoming a member of the Bell Choir Team! We need 12 ringers to form the group and there are NO auditions, no music background necessary, just a willingness to learn and be a part of the SKD Music Ministry!

If you think you would like to try and be a part of the Bell Team simply stop down and see me after Mass by the Music Ministry Area in Church or stop in the Parish Office during the week. To foster more participation, I have asked members of the vocal choirs to not sign up so that others can have a chance to join...so we REALLY need you!

I am planning Bell Clinicals (classes) in late July and early August to begin teaching basic music theory and bell fundamentals...it's easy and I promise to help you learn. Please seriously consider joining the Bell Choir and share your time and talent for your Parish!

Musically yours,

John SC Hudak

THE TEACHING

Pope John Paul II, Familiaris consortio, 50

The Christian family also builds up the Kingdom of God in history through the everyday realities that concern and distinguish its state of life. It is thus in the love between husband and wife . . . that the Christian family's participation in the prophetic, priestly and kingly mission of Jesus Christ and of His Church finds expression and realization. Therefore, love and life constitute the nucleus of the saving mission of the Christian family in the Church and for the Church.

God, our hearts are broken with pain at the senseless deaths caused by gun violence. Families mourn, children live in fear, and some in our nation respond by arming themselves with more guns with greater capacity to end life. Our disconnection and alienation has caused some to turn to guns for protection and safety. We ask that you touch our hearts with your love, heal our brokenness, and turn us away from violence toward peace. Help us to transform our own hearts and to seek peaceful ways of resolving our differences. Let our hands reach out and connect with those who feel alone, those who live in fear, and those suffering from mental illness. Let our voices be raised asking our legislators to enact gun laws to protect all in our society, especially those most vulnerable. Let our pens write messages demanding change while also scripting words of hope and transformation. We ask this in the name of the God who desires that we live together in peace. Amen.
