Saint Padre Pio: “Pray, hope, and don't worry. Worry is useless. God is merciful and will hear your prayer.”

“America you are beautiful... and blessed... the ultimate test of your greatness is the way you treat every human being, but especially the weakest and most defenseless. If you want equal justice for all and true freedom and lasting peace, then America, defend life.”

—Saint John Paul II

The Month of June is Dedicated to the Veneration of the Sacred Heart

Behold this Heart which has loved humanity so much, that it has spared nothing, even to exhausting and consuming itself, to testify to them its Love. Sacred Heart of Jesus make my heart like unto Thee. Amen.

Pope Francis prayer intention for June

We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives.

Abuse Reporting

An allegation of sexual abuse of a minor by anyone should be reported immediately to: Florida Department of Children and Families Child Abuse Hotline: 1-800-96abuse (800-962-2873) or visit <https://reportabuse.dcf.state.fl.us>.

If the alleged abuser is a diocesan employer/clergy/volunteer, also notify Victim Assistance Coordinator – Susan Benton at (941) 416-6114

LITURGY CORNER

Saint Katharine Drexel invites you to the CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION.

History: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ – Corpus Christi – as the name implies, is a solemnity that celebrates the Holy Eucharist. On Holy Thursday during Holy Week, we celebrate the institution of this Sacrament. However, the church recognized that because the events that take place during Holy Week and Holy Thursday focus on the passion of our Lord it can become a little difficult to meditate specifically on the Eucharist. This Solemnity allows us to focus specifically on the institution of The Blessed Sacrament with a sense of joy and celebration. As such, there are some similarities with the Holy Thursday Mass, specifically the procession.

This feast has its origin in the 13th century. Saint Juliana of Liège, a Norbertine canoness regular and mystic in what is now modern day Belgium received regular visions of Jesus that instructed the establishment of a feast to honor the Eucharist. In fact, she received these visions for twenty years! Eventually after relaying the contents of her visions to the proper authorities, the implementation of the feast of Corpus Christi occurred. Pope Urban IV instituted the solemnity in 1264, making it the first papal added universal feast.

Date & Time: On the Weekend of June 18-19, at the close of the Vigil 4:00 pm, Sunday 8:30 am and 10:30 am Masses, we will have a Eucharistic procession for the Feast of the Body and Blood of the Lord like the procession we did for 40 Hours Devotion. With prayer and song, Father Ricky will expose the Blessed Sacrament and begin the procession as we sing a hymn. After the short procession, Father Ricky will give the benediction and then repose of the Blessed Sacrament followed by a closing hymn just as in our usual Sunday Mass. Please join your fellow parishioners in this beautiful opportunity to bring the living heart of our faith into the community.

“The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life.”

–Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 1324.

“By the consecration, the transubstantiation of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ is brought about. Under the consecrated species of bread and wine Christ himself, living and glorious, is present in a true, real, and substantial manner: his Body and his Blood, with his soul and his divinity” (cf. Council of Trent: DS 1640; 1651).

–Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 1413

“The mode of Christ's presence under the Eucharistic species is unique. It raises the Eucharist above all the sacraments as “the perfection of the spiritual life and the end to which all the Sacraments tend.” In the most Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist “the body and blood, together with the soul and divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ and, therefore, the whole Christ is truly, really, and substantially contained.” “This presence is called ‘real’ – by which is not intended to exclude the other types of presence as if they could not be ‘real’ too, but because it is presence in the fullest sense: that is to say, it is a substantial presence by which Christ, God and man, makes himself wholly and entirely present.”

–Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 1374

O Sacrament most Holy, O Sacrament Divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving,
Be every moment Thine.

Thank you, Heavenly Father, for our good Shepherds at Saint Katharine Drexel Parish

We want to give all of the Volunteers a BIG heart-filled "Thank You!" and "Shout-Out" for all your hard work and amazing spirit which made our SKD Family Fun Day so spectacular!

Thank you, Father Ricky and John Hudak for your courage as you allowed yourselves to be dunked... several times which brought great smiles, laughs as well as made wonderful memories for all! Finally, thank you, Lord and Savior, for the wonderful weather... though very HOT for the gift of bringing us all together along with the opportunity to meet and welcome new friends to the SKD Family!

What is Spiritual Direction?

Spiritual direction is “help given by one Christian to another which enables that person to pay attention to God’s personal communication to him or her, to respond to this personally communicating God, to grow in intimacy with this God, and to live out the consequences of the relationship.” (William A. Barry and William J. Connolly, The Practice of Spiritual Direction)

Spiritual direction focuses on religious experience. It is concerned with a person’s actual experience of a relationship with God.

Spiritual direction is about a relationship. The religious experience is not isolated, nor does it consist of extraordinary events. It is what happens in an ongoing relationship between the person and God. Most often this is a relationship that is experienced in prayer.

Spiritual direction is a relationship that is going somewhere. God is leading the person to deeper faith and more generous service. The spiritual director asks not just “what is happening?” but “what is moving forward?”

The real spiritual director is God. God touches the human heart directly. The human spiritual director does not “direct” in the sense of giving advice and solving problems. Rather, the director helps a person respond to God’s invitation to a deeper relationship.

BIBLICAL ROOTS OF THE TRINITY

Today’s readings show some biblical roots of what Christians would later call the Trinity. Proverbs showcases the role of Wisdom in the work of creation, portrayed as a reality outside of God but integrated into God’s work of forming the heavens and the earth. We join the psalmist in sharing Wisdom’s delight in God’s handiwork: “O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth” (Psalm 8:2). In his letter to the Romans, Paul writes of peace with God through Jesus, and the love of God received through the Holy Spirit, distinguishing God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit while also displaying their abiding unity. Finally, in the farewell discourse from John’s Gospel, Jesus—who had earlier spoken of himself as Son of the Father—promises his friends that they will receive the Spirit of truth that will teach and guide them after his departure.

Third Weekend of the Month

After All Masses

God's grace continues to touch and heal us in powerful ways, after we have received Jesus. The close of Holy Mass is the perfect time to remain with Jesus a bit longer to pray for His healing and His help in any area of your life or the lives of those you know and love. Prayer Team Members are available to pray with you every third weekend of the month, after all Masses. Please come forward to present your prayer needs and those of your family and friends to our prayer team members who are stationed in the front of the Church.
