Saint Padre Pio: “Pray, hope, and don't worry. Worry is useless. God is merciful and will hear your prayer.”

“America you are beautiful... and blessed... the ultimate test of your greatness is the way you treat every human being, but especially the weakest and most defenseless. If you want equal justice for all and true freedom and lasting peace, then America, defend life.”

—Saint John Paul II

The Month of June is Dedicated to the Veneration of the Sacred Heart

“Behold this Heart which has loved humanity so much, that It has spared nothing, even to exhausting and consuming Itself, to testify to them Its Love.”
Sacred Heart of Jesus make my heart like unto Thee. Amen.

LITURGY CORNER

ORDINARY TIME WITH THE SAINTS

Saint Charles de Foucauld

By Connie Clark (Creative Communications for the Parish)

Pleasure seeker. Atheist. Soldier. Explorer. Geographer. Priest. Imitator of Christ. Martyr. Charles de Foucauld's life began in Strasbourg, France, where the young orphan was raised by his Catholic grandfather. But he lost his faith as a teen. He joined the French army and went to Algeria, later completing a geographical study of Morocco.

While in the desert, Charles was intrigued by the faith of Muslims. He experienced a profound conversion to Christ and spent several years with the Trappists in Syria and in Jesus' hometown of Nazareth. After his ordination to the priesthood, Charles moved to a remote part of French-occupied Algeria, where he lived in prayer and fellowship with the poor. With the outbreak of World War I, even aware of the risks to his own life, Charles remained with his people, who were too poor to move. In 1916, Charles was killed by local factions. He was beatified in 2005 and canonized in 2022 by Pope Francis.

Reflection – Pray with Saint Charles de Foucauld's his prayer of abandonment:

Father, I abandon myself into Your hands. Do with me what You will. Whatever You may do, I thank You; I am ready for all, I accept all. Let only Your will be done in me, and in all Your creatures. I wish no more than this, O Lord. Into Your hands I commend my soul. I offer it to You with all the love of my heart, for I love You, Lord... I surrender myself into Your hands without reserve and with boundless confidence, for You are my Father.

Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Composed by Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981), Second Bishop of Lafayette (1956-1973), following Hurricane Audrey in 1957]

St. Paul has a unique vision of freedom. We often think that freedom means I can do what I want without interference from an outside source, such as a bureaucracy or a dictator. For Paul, freedom is not so much being free from oppression as being free to love and serve those around us. What would stop us from loving others? It could be fear: "I'm not sure I would be able to do any good. I'm afraid of going into a bad neighborhood to help the homeless." Or it could be attachment to possessions or even to our family--the man in the Gospel wasn't free to follow Jesus because he thought it meant leaving his family behind. Paul talks about another kind of freedom when he says that following the Spirit means freedom from the Law (Galatians 5:18). He meant people who were obsessed with keeping all the laws and customs that were part of the Jewish tradition. Taken to an extreme, you would have to memorize every law on the books to be sure you did not break one. The freedom of the Spirit is a life lived out of love. As long as we love one another, we wouldn't have to worry about breaking the law, for God's laws are all examples of how to love one another.
